IN HONOR OF MAYWOOD BATAAN DAY AND NATIONAL POW/MIA RECOGNITION DAY

HON. DANNY K. DAVIS

OF ILLINOIS

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, September 16, 2020

Mr. DANNY K. DAVIS of Illinois. Madam Speaker, today I rise to tell my colleagues during this week that ends with National POW/MIA Recognition Day about my district's 78-year old Maywood Bataan Memorial Day tradition. This service honors the men from the village of Maywood, Illinois who became prisoners of war after fighting from December 7, 1941 to April 9, 1942 against invading Imperial Japanese forces in the Philippines.

The men of Maywood were members of Company B of the federated Illinois National Guard 33rd Tank Company, 33rd Infantry Division based at the town's Armory. On November 25, 1940, they became part of the 192nd Tank Battalion of the U.S. Army. In October 1941, 89 men from Company "B" left the United States for the Philippine Islands. They arrived in the Philippine Islands on November 20, 1941—Thanksgiving Day. On December 8, the war started and the Japanese attacked.

These Illinois tankers fought valiantly on the Bataan Peninsula with little food, medicine, fuel, or ammunition. Relief from the United States never came. Malaria, scurvy, and dysentery reached epidemic proportions. On April 9, 1942, Bataan was surrendered. The following day, some 85,000 American and Filipino soldiers, as Japanese captives, all became victims of the greatest atrocity of the Pacific War: the Bataan Death March. A seemingly endless line of sick and starving men began their 85 mile trip up from the tip of Bataan to Camp O'Donnell in central Luzon. More than 12,000 died en route.

Survivors of the March endured three and a half years of death camps, brutal labor, and untold abuse. Many were taken to Japan aboard hell ships to be slave laborers for Japanese companies. Of the more than 10,000 Americans taken prisoner on Bataan, between 6,000 and 7,000 died. Of the 89 men of Company "B" who left the U.S. in 1941, only 43 would return from the war.

This is the first year that the Memorial, which was scheduled for September 13, has had to be postponed. I ask my fellow representatives to join me in commending the hard work and dedication of Maywood Bataan Day Organization President Col. Richard A. McMahon, Jr. and his Board of Directors. And on this Friday, September 18, National POW/MIA Recognition Day may we all pause to remember the men and women of Bataan who gave so much in the fight against tyranny.

HONORING THE SERVICE AND WORK OF BILL JACKSON

HON. KURT SCHRADER

OF OREGON

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, September 16, 2020

Mr. SCHRADER. Madam Speaker, today I rise in honor of Bill Jackson, a proud veteran of the U.S. Marine Corps, lifetime member of the African American community in Portland, Oregon, and an exemplary hard worker at Pepsi for the past 50 years.

After Bill ended his service as a Marine in 1970, he took jobs at both Pepsi and Fred Meyer. For the next 30 years, Bill diligently worked two full time shifts, carrying out his tasks at Pepsi during the night before waking up to report for duty at Fred Meyer during the day. Bill's work ethic became so legendary and he had become such a beloved member of the Pepsi family, that he received a rare and distinct honor. At his 40th work anniversary, Pepsi released a run of 12 oz. cans, about 3,500 cases, with his picture proudly displayed on each can. His legacy further became enshrined when Pepsi named a street on its property in Portland, Bill Jackson Way.

Bill has that special ability to connect with people and inspire them. During his time at Pepsi Bill mentored many new hires and skillfully engaged his colleagues in meaningful conversations around race. He also leads those conversations in the Portland community and generously shares his time mentoring underprivileged African American teens.

There is a tireless nature to Bill. It was only five years ago that he stopped working two full time jobs; security at Portland Public Schools and night loader at Pepsi. As Bill enters his well-deserved retirement, I am proud to recognize him for his service to our country, and for his loyalty, work ethic, and ongoing dedication to others. Bill has made this world a better place.
